Abigail: Wise Counselor

Abigail was the wife of a selfish rich man named Nabal. While David was hiding in the wilderness of Paran he helped protect Nabal's shearers and sheep. In return for the favour he asked Nabal to provide food for him and the 400 men that were with him. Nabal refused to grant David's just request. David was so upset at the way he was treated that he vowed to kill Nabal and all his household. A servant related the story to Abigail. Abigail's courageous intervention saved her household. This message studies how she was able to humbly appease David's wrath so that we can learn to do the same.

C1435 (NI Tuesday 6:45am) DVD CD MP3 _____

Modesty: The Lost Virtue

What do we understand when we hear the word "Modesty?" This study takes an in-depth look at what it means to be modest in word, act and dress, and why it is a virtue that we should possess.

Even as Sarah

Even as Sarah examines biblical examples of godly women and what we can learn from them in order to have a more ennobling and sanctifying influence in the world. Though it presents principles applicable to all people, it is especially directed to wives.

C1440 (NI Friday 9:00am / SI Thursday 6:30am) DVD CD MP3 _____

Ruth & Mary: Unselfish & Humble

This message looks at the life of two women. The first, Ruth, who gave up her land and family in order to care for her mother-in-law. A beautiful bond united the two women and teaches unselfish love. The second is Mary, who was only a young woman when she received the call to become the mother of Christ. Her life and decision to follow God can teach us about learning to humbly fulfil God's will for our lives, even when it involves sacrifice.
